Accounts Payable Regulatory Compliance Conference 2010

Expected Attendance: 60

IOMA's AP Regulatory Compliance Conference 2010 provides expert insight and advice on how AP departments can successfully build the policies and procedures to protect their company from embarrassing lawsuits and expensive litigation. We're expecting 60 attendees you can personally engage at this unique 1-day gathering. The event will focus on issues such as:

- Find out what new IRS compliance initiatives are on the way.
- Get the inside story on how to protect your company on payments to nonresident aliens, 1099, independent contractor, unclaimed property and sales & use tax issues.
- Learn how to fine tune your P-Card and T&E policies and procedures in the new regulatory environment.
- Understand how the new federal laws – OFAC, FTO and HIPPA affect AP operations.
- Get the most up-to-date information directly from the source with sessions led by 2 top IRS officers.
